Additional information to set up a Bank Standing Order

Please hereunder find further information and clarification that may be needed to set up a Bank Standing Order:

1. Payment must be affected to the Central Bank of Malta (this is quoted as CBM in Circular No 06/2010).
2. Procedure to affect the transaction by Standing Order:
 - The commercial bank is to be instructed to transfer the amount due to Medical Council by a Standing Order payable to Health Division via Central Bank of Malta (Bank charges may apply).
 - Local Payment - the commercial bank must quote the Public Account No. 40001EUR-CMG5-001-H.
 - Overseas Payment – the commercial bank must quote the Public Account No. 40001EUR-CMG5-001-H and the Public Account IBAN No. MT55MALT011000040001EURCMG5001H.
 - It is of utmost importance to submit all your personal details so that your payment can be identified and traced.
 - It is very important to quote the Below the Line Account Number of the Medical Council T095-82B10, Cost Centre 123, Resp. Centre 2123 so that the money credited from the Central Bank are posted to the Medical Council in the correct Below the Line Account. Else fund transferred will be lost and difficult to trace.
 - The BIC Code is MALMTMT. This is the same as the Sort Code or the Swift Code.
3. Amounts due per year (LN 330/2006) to cover the Annual Retention Fee:

Medical / Dental Register:	€ 38.50
Specialist Accreditation Register:	€ 51.30 (per specialty being register for)
First Time Registration:	€ 51.30
Certificate of Good Standing:	€ 12.90
